Free Admission for Veterans This Saturday at #HawaiiisMuseum

Honolulu, Hawai‘i — In recognition of Veterans Day, Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum is pleased to offer free admission to all veterans, plus one guest, on Saturday, Nov. 11, 2023.

“On Veterans Day, we honor and express our appreciation for those who served to protect our freedoms,” said Brandon Bunag, Ed.D., Bishop Museum vice president of public programs and interim director of education. “We welcome veterans and their ‘ohana to explore, relax, and enjoy our exhibitions and programs as our special guests this Saturday.”

Veterans can show their ID at the Museum’s Ticket Desk to access complimentary admission for themselves and one guest. For general Museum information and listings of daily and special programs, in addition to the J. Watumull Planetarium’s show schedule, please visit BishopMuseum.org.

About Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum:

Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum’s mission is to inspire our community and visitors through the exploration, celebration, and perpetuation of the extraordinary history, culture, and environment of Hawai‘i and the Pacific. The Museum was founded in 1889 by Charles Reed Bishop in memory of his wife Bernice Pauahi Bishop, a royal descendant of King Kamehameha I. Today, the Museum thrives as an educational center for the community and is widely regarded as the world’s premier institution for Hawaiian and Pacific content.

Bishop Museum’s vast collections of more than 25 million objects and specimens represent nine disciplines and include more than 22 million biological specimens, over 2 million cultural objects, 115,000 historical publications, and 1 million photographs, films, works of art, audio recordings, and manuscripts. These collections tell the stories of the cultures and biodiversity of Hawai‘i and the Pacific as well as the proud legacy of scholarly research spanning 130 years.

Bishop Museum proudly serves more than 200,000 visitors each year, including 20,000 children on school visits.
