Halloweekend: A Saturday of Play at Bishop Museum

Bishop Museum event provides fun and safe Halloween activities for families

Honolulu, Hawai‘i – This Halloween, Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum presents “Halloweekend: A Saturday of Play at Bishop Museum.” With educational programs across the museum campus, a social media costume contest, and prizes, Halloweekend will provide a safe and fun place for families to celebrate Halloween festivities, Bishop Museum-style. Attendees can enjoy Halloweekend on Oct. 31, 2020 within the two timed admissions, from 9:30 a.m.-12 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. - 4 p.m.

Passport Activity

Upon arrival, each keiki will receive a “passport” from the Ho‘okipa Desk (located outside of Shop Pacifica, where guests are admitted to the museum). Each activity they then participate in will earn them a stamp on the passport, and upon leaving guests can turn in their completed passport for a treat-filled goody bag.

Halloweekend will feature activities from Bishop Museum’s recently launched Outdoor Museum concept. Keiki can participate in pa‘ani games, learn about native plants with a “GO and GROW!” kit, play a native bird matching game, and more. Each activity they participate in will earn a stamp on their passport. In addition, keiki can earn stamps by playing trivia using Bishop Museum’s audio tours. In order to receive a stamp from these locations, guests will have to scan a QR code located near several nene (Hawaiian goose) bird cutouts scattered across the museum campus. After listening to a segment of the audio tour, keiki will answer a simple trivia question covered by that section of the audio tour to obtain a stamp on their passport.

Costume Contest Activity

Additionally, keiki who are Hawai‘i residents aged 18 years or younger are invited to visit the Museum in costume and participate in its social media costume contest. To enter, guests will need to take a photo at the selfie station in front of the nene bird outside the Science Adventure Center, and post the image to their, or their parents' or guardians' public Instagram account, tag the Museum @BishopMuseum, and use the hashtag, #BishopMuseumHalloween. A winner from each timed period will receive a goody bag, and one grand prize winner for the best family or group costume will win a Bishop Museum family membership.

To qualify for the goody bags, participants must enter (post their photos) by Noon (for the first goody bag) or 4 p.m. (for the second goody bag). Face masks that cover both the nose and mouth must be integrated into the costumes, and entries will be judged on their creativity, originality, and any tie-in to Bishop Museum.

A mail-in form of entry will also be available. Full contest rules will be posted on the Bishop Museum website (BishopMuseum.org) the week of Halloween, and promoted on the Museum's social media channels (@BishopMuseum).

"Halloweekend: A Saturday of Play at Bishop Museum" will be a safe event for families, with all Bishop Museum safety protocols regarding mask-wearing and social distancing being observed, as well as COVID-19 mandates at state and county levels.

About Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum:

Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum's mission is to inspire our community and visitors through the exploration, celebration and perpetuation of the extraordinary history, culture, and environment of Hawai'i and the Pacific. The museum was founded in 1889 by Charles Reed Bishop in memory of his wife Bernice Pauahi Bishop, a royal descendant of King Kamehameha I. Today, the museum thrives as an educational center for the community and is widely regarded as the world's premier institution for Hawaiian and Pacific content. Its vast collections of more than 25 million objects and specimens represent nine disciplines and include more than 22 million biological specimens, over two million cultural objects, 115,000 historical publications, and one million photographs, films, works of art, audio recordings, and manuscripts. These collections tell the stories of the cultures and biodiversity of Hawai'i and the Pacific as well as the proud legacy of scholarly research spanning 130 years. Bishop Museum proudly serves more than 200,000 visitors each year, including 20,000 children on school visits. To learn more about the museum's research, collections, exhibits, and programs, visit www.bishopmuseum.org, follow @BishopMuseum on Twitter and Instagram, become a fan of Bishop Museum on Facebook, visit Bishop Museum's YouTube channel at youtube.com/user/BishopMuseum, or call (808) 847-3511.
